Join specialists from the UW Health Women’s Pelvic Wellness clinic, Heidi Brown, MD and Dobie Giles, MD who will explain signs, symptoms and treatment options for pelvic floor disorders. They also will highlight advances in women’s health care resulting from the collaboration between the UW Department of ObGyn and Department of Urology.

Find out how you can strengthen your pelvic floor with a demonstration of quick and easy exercises and tips. Invite your friends and join us for an evening of powerful conversation that could change how you’re living your life. Wine, cheese and dessert will be provided.
